Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Great Blood Purifier, is the Best.

Spring sickness comes in some de-gree to every man, woman and child n our climate. It is that run-down condition of the system that results from impure, impoverished, devitalized blood.

It is marked by loss of appetite and that tired feeling, and in many cases by some form of eruption.

The best way to treat spring sickness is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This old reliable family medicine purifies enriches and scribble the purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood. It is an all-the-year-round alterative and tonic, and is absolutely the best Spring medicine.

Get your blood in good condition at once—now. Delay may be dangerous. Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and insist on having it, for nothing else can take its place.

Already forty enrollments have been secured. Money prizes are to be awarded those ranking highest in the county and state, as the club movement is state wide. Wherever there is sufficient interest in corn club work, and a local leader can be secured, clubs of not less than six active members may be or-ganized. Clubs may be organized by county or state agents, teachers in the schools and supervisors or by others authorized by the state agent. Each club should elect the following officers: President, vice president, secretary and treasurer. Whenever it seems advisable the club may have an advisory board which should con-sist of representatives of grange, women's clubs or other organizations and the Farm Bureau through its local director. This board should meet with the leader from time to time to discusse plans for the local clubs.

Each club shall hold meetings at least once each month during the period from May to October, inclusive, for the purpose of studying and discussing corn and related topics. The secretary of the club shall send a report of each meeting to the county or state agent, after it has been approved by the local leader. During the summer one field meeting shall be held under the direction of the school
